Matrimonial.

Mr. Chas. Goldstein, of the Twin Brothers, of this city, and Miss Eugenia Oppenheim, of Huntington, W. Va., were married at the latter place at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They will start immediately for a trip to the Pan-American Exposition, going by the way of Old Point Comfort, where they will remain for a few days. They will return to Paris in about two weeks and will go to housekeeping in one of J.
T. Hinton's houses on Upper Main street.

There is no cleverer or more popular young man in Paris than Mr. Goldstein, and his bride is said to be a most lovable young lady. A host of friends will wish them a long and happy married life.

At the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Miss Birdie Minter, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Minter, was united in marriage to Mr. C. H. Burns, of Stanford, Ky. The bride looked lovely in traveling costume of castor colored material and wore a hat to match. The present was numerous and costly. The ceremony was beautifully performed by Eld. J. S. Sweeney. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for Cincinnati and Louisville, and after a short wedding trip will return home and go to housekeeping in one of Mr. O.
Edwards' houses on Main street.

Mr. J. M. Smeltzer, of Virginia, and Miss Nettie Harrison, of Cane Ridge, were married at the residence of the bride's father at Cane Ridge Wednesday night, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith. Miss Stella Minter and Mr. John Graves were the attendants. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Mamie Soper.

A tripple wedding was celebrated near Salt Lick, Bath county, Monday afternoon of last week, the three being sisters and two of the bride-grooms brothers.
Lester Bashford was wedded to Miss Mary McCarthy, Samuel Bashford to Miss America McCarthy, and R. L.
Reynolds to Miss Mattie McCarthy.

Crescens-Abbott Race Off.

The match between Crescens 2:02 1/4, and The Abbot, 2:03 1/4, for a purse of $30,000, winner to take all, according to an agreement made early last week at New York between George Ketcham, owner of the champion, and Ed Geers, who drives and controls Scannell's horse, is off.

The owner of Crescens declined all propositions for a race against The Abbot, stating that he had engagements for the stallion up to December 15. On the other hand, driver Ed Geers stood ready to race The Abbot against the champion on any terms Mr. Ketcham might elect. There seems to be but one conclusion, and that is that owner George Ketcham fears to take another chance against The Abbot.

Damn All the Anarchists.

Charles Moore, editor of the Blue Grass Blade, uses the following Mooresque language in referring to the assassination of President McKinley:

"Damn all anarchists! Squelch all of their papers; such as 'Free Society' and 'Discontent.' Swipe out the whole infernal, cowardly, treacherous gang of assassins and arrest, as a suspect, any man or woman who calls himself or herself an anarchist."—Lexington Democrat.
